“It’s a Miracle”

Barry Manilow (1975) – Key of F

Called By: Ted Lizotte – Courtesy of Throwback Tunes

Opener

Circle Left

You wouldn’t believe where I’ve been
The cities the towns I’ve been in Men Star by the Right now
Left Allemande & Weave the Ring
The people they all look the same
Only the names have been changed
But now that I’m home again
I’ll tell you what I believe.

Heads Promenade and go Halfway around
Walk in Square Thru to four hands around
All the way then you Swing Thru
Boy Run, you Ferris Wheel the ring
Square Thru & travel go three hands around
Swing that girl Promenade her on down.
But now that I’m home again
I’ll tell you what I believe.

Middle Break/Closer

Grand Square

It’s a Miracle, a true-blue spectacle
A miracle come true
We’re together baby, I was going crazy ‘til the Miracle came through, Allemande & Weave
Now you’re here and my arounds around you, baby they’ll be Dancing in the streets
For the miracle, a true-blue spectacle, the Miracle is you.
